Francis prays in front of the cross in San Damiano : "Give me a hope that carries through everything, and a love that does not exclude anything or anyone".